

Total tribal opponent and MIGA contributions 1/1/92-4/28/95:	$ 61,100.00
Total O'Connor and Kitto contributions 1/1/92-4/28/95:	$ 21,617.00
Collective giving prior to DNC meeting:	$ 82,717.00
Total tribal opponent and MIGA contributions 4/29/95-12/31/96:	$397,450.00
Total O'Connor and Kitto contributions 4/29/95-12/31/96:	$ 18,025.00
Collective giving after DNC meeting:	$415,475.00 <sup>579</sup>

Among these totals, the most significant are those relating to the tribes and MIGA. Those figures take on added dimension in view of the fact that from January 1992 to April 1995, contributions by Shakopee-related parties alone – Little Six, Inc., and former Chairman Prescott – accounted for $51,500 of the $61,100 contributed by the Hudson tribal opponents.

The contributing opponent tribes, and the post-April 28, 1995, donations they made<sup>580</sup> to national Democratic organizations (see n. 576, supra) during the 1996 election cycle, are as follows:

Shakopee Mdewakanton Sioux	$ 127,500.00
Oneida Nation of Wisconsin	119,300.00
St. Croix Chippewa	59,000.00
Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe	42,500.00

---

<sup>579</sup>Figures were obtained by a search of public resources, such as reports filed with the Federal Election Commission and data recorded in its database, and records of the Minnesota Ethical Practices Board, as well as interviews, testimony and records obtained from a variety of sources, including contributors and recipients. No evidence was developed of any unreported cash contributions to the DNC or Democratic candidates during the examined time frame.

<sup>580</sup>Contributions attributed to tribes throughout this analysis include contributions made by tribal leaders.